Resolved, That the Committee be continued to report next year.

Resolved, That so far as the mind of the Church in the Diocese of Georgia has been ascertained by the investigation of this Committee, this Convention is justified in expressing that the Diocese will be unalterably opposed to a Missionary District with a Negro Bishop in the Southern Dioceses, and so far as it can express the attitude of the Diocese of Georgia, that it will be unwilling to cede jurisdiction of the colored congregations within its limits to the General Convention for this purpose.

Mr. E. S. Elliott presented the report of the Committee on Church Pension Fund, (See App. III, p. 115), and the following resolutions appended were adopted:

Resolved, That in conformity with the legislation adopted by the General Convention of 1913, setting forth the principles upon which pension provision for the clergy of the Church and their dependents should be constructed, pursuant to which the corporation, "The Church Pension Fund," has been created to carry these principles into effect, the Diocese of Georgia adopts and enters into the system of the Church Pension Fund.

Provided, however, that inasmuch as the funds in this Diocese for Infirm and Disabled Clergy and for the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy are sufficient to pay half the assessment of the Church Pension Fund upon the Clergy in this Diocese, the Board of Officers of the Corporation of this Diocese is hereby authorized to enter into such equitable arrangement with the Church Pension Fund, incorporated under the laws of New York, as to said Board may seem best with reference to the payment by the Church Pension Fund to the beneficiaries now being paid by the Diocese of Georgia from the income of the fund for the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergy of this Diocese and the amount of the income of such diocesan funds to be paid for pensions to the Church Pension Fund.

Resolved, Further that it is the sense of this Convention that half of the assessment of any clergyman be paid from the sources from whence his salary comes. The other half to be paid from the income of said Diocesan funds.

Resolved, That the assessment for the half not paid by the Diocese shall be binding on all parishes, unless within 60 days from this date, a majority of the parishes shall reject the plan.

That notice of the plan be sent by the Secretary of this Convention to each parish within one week from this date with instruction from this Convention that the plan will be considered satisfactory to the Parish unless it shall within 60 days from this date notify the Secretary of its rejection.

That the Board of Missions be requested to make provision for Missionaries under the plan.

That the Rector of Christ Church, Frederica, and the Bishop be requested to make provision under the plan for clerical recipients of the Georgia Mission Fund.

That the Board of Officers is authorized to make proper provision for the Bishop under the plan by the use of any available funds of the Corporation or Diocese.

That the Board of Officers is authorized to take any other action necessary or proper to carry the plan into effect.

That this Committee be continued until the next Convention.

The Bishop's Address and Diary

APPENDIX I.

Address of the Bishop

My Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

Since our last Convention there have passed away four of our Bishops.

The Rt. Rev. Chas. Scadding, Doctor in Divinity, Bishop of Oregon, died at Portland, May 26, 1914. He was in the prime of his maturer powers, an enthusiastic and capable missionary and his death was one of those mysteries, the meaning of which can be found only in the loving wisdom of God.

The Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, Doctor in Divinity, Bishop of East Carolina, died in Wilmington, N. C., August 23, 1914. He had been seriously ill for many months prior to his death. He was a man of peculiarly attractive personality, an ardent, lovable soul, so genuine that none could doubt him and so unselfish that none could fail to love him.

The Rt. Rev. Franklin Spencer Spalding, Doctor in Divinity, Missionary Bishop of Utah, was killed by an automobile in Salt Lake City, September 25, 1914. His death was a tragedy not only because of the manner of his taking off, but because he was still a young man, of splendid devotion, of far more than ordinary ability, and as a student of social problems was especially concerned in promoting the reconciliation of the social order with divine justice. He was brave enough to speak unpalatable truth in the very citadel of privilege but so on fire with moral sincerity and earnestness as to win respect and admiration from those who disagreed with him and doubtless regarded his teaching as dangerous.

The Rt. Rev. Wm. Farrar Weeks, Doctor in Divinity, Bishop Coadjutor of Vermont, died October 23, 1914. Bishop Weeks was consecrated on January 29, 1913, so that his Episcopate lasted less than two years, one of those disappointments which seem to us like miscarriages, but which must be in some way conformable to a wisdom and goodness beyond our ken.

In our own diocese the ranks of our clergy have been unbroken by death and we are thankful. We have lost by removal, three of those whose presence was familiar and who were a help and pleasure to us. Two have come to fill vacancies and one is expected at an early date. Two of our parishes are vacant, but all the missions are served regularly with greater or less frequency.

The year has been a hard one financially as everyone knows or, at any rate, says, and in some places in the diocese it seems either to have been felt with peculiar severity or at least has been allowed to cause unusual depression. In a few cases, I regret to report that the salaries of the clergy are in arrears and the churches seem to be in rather distressed financial condition. I had hoped that vestries and people would by necessary economies in other less important matters manage to meet their pledges to the church, so that its work would not be seriously hampered, and I hoped especially that no clergyman would be required to suffer distress and anxiety by failure to receive his modest salary. I am grateful to the lay people for the fact that in our Diocese, this default has been rare. I wish that it might be even rarer. For the clergy are in this respect different from most people. Their incomes do not fluctuate usually with the times. When people are prosperous the salary does not increase, so that when people are less prosperous, the salary ought not to decrease. More than that, the clergy are entirely and solely dependent upon the good will and honor of the laity for their living. If it is not paid, or paid promptly, there are no processes of compulsion which a clergyman would be willing to employ to enforce his just dues. In this matter the obligation of Noblesse Oblige is upon the laity. And I am glad to certify out of a long experience that in the main most of the laity are faithful to the obligation.

In the contribution for Diocesan Missions, we are short by about $250.00, compared with the corresponding date of last year. It is possible that this deficit has been made up by the time the books of the Treasurer were closed. But I feel especially grateful to those parishes and missions which have so loyally supported the diocese through this year of distress, and I am glad that the difference is no greater. In the apportionment for General Missions, there have been increased payments amounting to $588.00. Whether this has been more money given or only greater promptness in giving, it is still a cause of thankfulness.

The Board of Missions finds itself in a position of peculiar difficulty. For a number of years, it has been compelled to carry over a deficit. These deficits have been financed by using a fund belonging to the Board known as "The Reserve Fund." The purpose of this fund is to meet the Board's obligations during those parts of the year when its income is very small, i. e., the summer and early autumn. At other seasons the loans should be returned to the Reserve Fund, and they are so returned except when at the end of the fiscal year a deficit makes it impossible to do so. Such has been the unfortunate experience for several years, until the Reserve Fund is so badly depleted as to cause serious anxiety. Without it, the missionary salaries could not be paid promptly or loans would have to be resorted to, which might prove disastrous.

To meet this situation, the Board has asked for an emergency fund of $400,000.00, and to raise this they ask that every member of the Church shall contribute one day's income to the fund in addition to his usual gift to Missions. This plan up to May 1st had yielded $112,000.00. Some of our people and of our churches have given to the fund, in response to my request that offerings be taken for it on April 25th. But evidently very few have responded.

I am sure, brethren, that many people can afford to comply with this appeal of our Missionary Board and give one day's income to meet this situation, even in addition to what we usually give to sustain God's Church and His Work. I trust that many will be willing to do so. If any are so disposed, act at once on the good suggestion or impulse, and I earnestly trust that when you return to your homes, this will not be forgotten, but that some effort shall be made to secure contributions. As these gifts are to be credited to our apportionment, may it not result in our doing more this year than ever before to meet this obligation, or even in paying it in full.

It happens that to-morrow, May 20th, is the seventh anniversary of my consecration as Bishop of this Diocese. I mention it in order that I may ask and be blessed by your prayers at this service for myself as your Bishop, and for our Diocese and our common work for the Master. Seven was of old a sacred number and under the Jews the seventh year was a Sabbatical year, with some especial significance. But now that we are scientific and, as far as possible, decimal in our computations, a seventh year does not lend itself to especial significance as an anniversary. For that reason, as for other reasons, I am not going to harass you with a bombardment of comparative statistics. If statistics are favorable, they are apt to minister to pride and if they are unfavorable, they may be unduly discouraging. In fact, they are very deceptive generally, as well as uninteresting and uninspiring. There is nothing more elusive than a fact, especially a fact interned in a body of statistics, or a fact seen through the atmosphere of one's mental prepossessions.

I am sure, however, that we can say that during these past seven years, by the mercy of God, the Diocese has grown and our labor has not been in vain. We may thank God and take courage. But there is so much yet to do that we cannot afford to take time or thought for much reviewing. We must face the future and the duty that lies ahead.

If we believe in the history, the teaching and the order and discipline of the Church to which we belong, we must believe that it has a mission to our brethren in this part of Georgia. If we believe that it represents in some unique and special way the Church of the Living God, holy, Catholic, historic and apostolic, we must recognize our privilege and our duty to contribute the blessing of our heritage to the Christian civilization of our people. We must go forward.

As it is, we have fifty-seven church buildings in twenty-six counties. In seven other counties we hold regular services but without church building and in six other counties there are a few communicants known to reside for whom occasional services are held. In all, we bear some witness in thirty-nine Counties out of the sixty-five Counties which comprise the Diocese. In some of them it is almost negligible, so far as we can see. Probably, however, nothing that is genuine and sincere and in the spirit and power of Christ is ever negligible.

The religious future of the land depends more than we think upon the religious life of the people in the rural parts. The country church or mission is of far more importance than its size would indicate. The religious and social life of the country-side is indeed one of the great problems of the day. I think the clergyman who is ministering to small bands of people in our towns and smaller cities and in country districts is just in the place where the need for consecrated lives and work and for sanctified common-sense is greatest. What this Church has to contribute and witness to in the life of our people is most valuable and necessary. There is no reason to suppose that in time the Episcopal Church cannot be adapted to and be appreciated by country people, and by the plainest, humblest people. There was a time when the Church was the spiritual mother of all the English people, urban and rural, and in fact it is to-day the Church of King and peasant alike. The country pastor and missionary is in a peculiar sense on the Church's firing line. He needs a deeper sense of the dignity and importance of his work and he needs, too, the unstinted loyalty and support of the Church behind him.

The question, therefore, which I hope this Convention will always keep uppermost in its mind is that while it is an administrative and legislative body, its administration and legislation must be directed to the advancement of this purpose. What can we do which will most efficiently promote true religion and Christianity as this Church has received and conceives it and promote it among all the people who dwell within the limits of the Diocese of Georgia. Our world does not end with the Diocese, but it begins there. It is our first responsibility. Nothing should interest us more than to hear how this enterprise is getting on and nothing should concern us more than to consider what we can do as a Convention to help it on. The work of God's Church is to teach the way of righteousness, to guide men into it, to persuade them to accept it and in God's name and through the grace and mercy of Christ, to struggle for it, and inspire them with wisdom and zeal to bring other men into the way. It is to bring about God's Kingdom in human life.

This Convention is a part of the machinery necessary for that accomplishment. But apart from that end, it is of no conceivable value. If it does not contribute to that end, it is a waste of time and effort. And it will be a waste if all of us do not keep constantly in mind and heart what the end and aim is. It will be a very uninteresting business apart from the inspiration of the great spiritual purpose. It will seem scarcely worth while to spend two days in attending to the seemingly petty details. The financial features are quite insignificant compared with those with which you laymen probably deal in your private business and in those corporations with which you may be connected.

You know that the old painters always painted a halo about the head of the Saints. This halo was a symbol of the spiritual significance and beauty that was associated with the material features of the Saint. It was the radiance of the divine around the human. The Saint is outwardly just a man or a woman of common clay but to those who can see, there is the halo which means that the Saint is something more than that, that the life of the Saint is the life of God.

It seems to me that the Church is to many just an ordinary human association and the work of a Convention just common ordinary business, reading of minutes, hearing and passing accounts, enacting legislation and that, amid the play and interplay of ordinary human motives and sometimes very small and selfish and conflicting ones. As such it is not a very imposing or thrilling adventure. It is not surprising that many do not conceive it worth their while to come or worth their while to stay.

What I think that we want to see is the halo about the Church, the divine in the human. Let us get away from the idea merely of the Episcopal Church, our Church, and think of it as the Church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth, which Christ hath purchased with his own blood. The Church that Christ loved, that He sanctifies and cleanses that He may present it to Himself a glorious Church . . . that it should be holy and without blemish. The halo about the Church. No painter can picture it for unbelieving eyes to see. It can only be seen by eyes of faith. The Church is no ordinary human association, of the earth, earthly, Somehow it is a Body of which Christ is the head, and a Body within which dwells the Eternal Spirit—a Divine Spirit-bearing Body.

Some things about the Church—at any rate, about those of us who represent it, do not suggest possibly halos—far from it. They rather suggest ordinary worldly pride and selfishness and littleness. But even in the greatest Saint there is the alloy of unsanctified earthliness still mingled with the stuff which radiates halos. But he is a poor cynic, a moral scavenger, mayhap, who can see nothing of the halo and only the remnants of unsanctified earthliness. Yes, the Church is not all halo for She partakes of the wordliness and selfishness of us, Her imperfect children. But nevertheless the man who does not and cannot see the halo is not fit to legislate or administer the Church's affairs. It is probable, indeed, that they will bore him, unless he fancies that they offer him some opportunity for that sort of prominence which Diotrophes loved. You recollect "Diotrophes" of whom St. John wrote, "who loveth to have the pre-eminence." People who love to have the pre-eminence sometimes use the Church as the field of their operations and it is needless to say that such people do not see halos anywhere. They see only themselves, and when people see only or mainly themselves and their own interests, the business they are handling goes very wrong. The business of the Church under such administration does not advance God's Kingdom materially. God's Kingdom cannot advance when its agents are much concerned about their own Kingdom.

God's Kingdom must dominate all other Kingdoms and all other interests while we are here in attendance upon this Convention. Therefore, pray do not let us fail to see the halo and to remember the Kingdom. If we do see it, remember, I am sure, the vision and the recollection will exorcise all demons from our minds and hearts, the demons of individual, parochial and factious selfishness. They will sober us with a sense of responsibility and give a dignity to the modest duties we are here to perform. They will make us realize a truer sense of brotherhood and we shall not spend any time in trying to have our own way as opposed to other people's way, for we shall all be much concerned about uniting to get God's way done. We shall probably then enjoy doing these things, for they will become interesting. The reason that life and its duties are so uninteresting oftentimes is because they have no vision. They are so monotonously insignificant (and they are insignificant because they are unrelated), that one becomes insufferably bored. But whatever can be done, humble though it be, with a high motive, a large outlook, and a sense of service, becomes interesting. And that is the thing we want to feel, the motive of devotion to our Lord, the outlook of His spiritual Kingdom and the service of our fellowmen, Christ's sheep, God's children, "who are in the midst of this naughty world" as the Prayer Book says. What can we do here in Convention, assembled to promote God's righteousness among men, God's Kingdom on the earth, first, here in our Diocese, and next, everywhere. If any man thinks cynically that neither he nor another can do anything, let him go home. He is not needed. He is of no use. Let him pray for eyes to see. He is blind.

We hope and pray then that the Church may grow, not for our sakes or for its own, but for the sake of those it can bless. But no church can grow which is not alive. No dead thing can grow. The church again is not alive if it is not united. Dead things fall to pieces. Living things cohere. And the church cannot be united unless we love one another. Every evil spirit tends to division. The good spirit tends to unity and peace, to strength and growth.

So my brethren as a living Body of Christ's loving and united people we meet here to-day to look ahead and to forge ahead. We believe in God's Church; we have confidence in Him and we trust one another. With that Spirit we can certainly accomplish something. We can at any rate give and receive from each other the encouragement of our cheerful optimism and our brotherly sympathy. Everybody ought to go home feeling better and determined to do better. The laity can go back to put into the Vestries and congregations a finer and larger spirit of loyalty which will show itself in more prompt and generous giving, so that the word "begging" will never be heard again and the tragedy of financial helplessness and hopelessness will be forever forgotten. No kicks, no complaints. No pathetic letters of despair to take all the sweetness and joy out of religion.

And the clergy can go home braced up and glad to take a fresh grip. Next year there will be more Confirmation Candidates, and they more thoroughly prepared, the Sunday School will be bettered by improved methods and greater efficiency; there will be a spirit of social helpfulness which will make the world understand that nothing human is foreign to the interest and care of the Church.

Some time ago, a clergyman who represents one important department of activity in the Church was commenting upon the lack of enterprise exhibited by some parishes and some dioceses. He said he asked some rectors and, I think, he said, one Bishop, what plans they had for their parishes or diocese during the coming year and they confessed that they had none. I am rather glad he did not ask me. Of course, I have a plan. I hope we all have one. Our plan is to preach the Gospel, and minister to the spiritual needs of men and to make the church larger and stronger and more effective in order to save men; souls and bodies, through our Lord Jesus Christ. But I think we could be helped by something more specific. Like children we need to be encouraged by counting the mile posts. Let us see if we cannot get some more specific and nearer goal for the next year's race.

One is this, I wish the Convention to consider what can be done by it to promote religious education and social service in the diocese. The whole Christian world is much aroused and concerned about these two matters of applied religion. Our own church is equally aroused. We have a General Board of Religious Education and a Commission on Social Service, each with a paid Secretary to promote their objects. The Province of Sewanee, of which our Diocese is a part, has also provided for similar provincial agencies. Our Diocese has in the past constituted its Board of Religious Education and Social Service Commission. Reports were submitted from both at the last Convention. In one the report begins "Your Board has done no work since the last Convention." I do not believe the failure is mainly the responsibility of the Board for the report continues that it had previously invited correspondence from Rectors and Sunday Schools Superintendents "but no letters had been received."

The other report makes a brave effort and does testify to the interested earnestness of its signatories, but it states frankly that it had little work to report. I think that both these reports show that as a diocese we are not yet aroused and concerned. What I propose is that we shall become so and that this convention shall give to these two matters such thoughtful consideration as will interest not only its own members but gradually interest the people of the Diocese. Religious education and social service are two of the most important expressions of genuine Christian life. Religion which does not affect the training of the young or the promotion of social righteousness is defective religion.

This Convention is the only representative gathering of the Church in this diocese, the only method by which the diocese can express itself as a whole in word or deed. So that whatever concern the Church feels or whatever effort it may desire to make in these lines of Christian endeavor must be expressed and directed by this Convention. I hope, therefore, that you may reaffirm the action of previous Conventions in a more emphatic fashion on both these subjects, give them proper consideration and reappoint and reconstitute both Board and Commission, give them some modest amount of money for the necessary expenses of their administration and at the same time make it plain that you consider the matters seriously and expect the clergy and laity to consider them so also.

In the next place, I want you to in every congregation of this diocese, large or small, pray and labor in every way in your power that there shall next year be unity and peace. One would suppose that such a proposal would be unnecessary. Is it not a contradiction that any congregation of Christian people should not be united and peaceful? Can any congregation be a Christian congregation which is not so? I think we might do well to consider that. As a matter of experience I think I may say that one of the most serious hindrances to the growth of God's Church and that means to the salvation of the world is division and strife and envy and contention and faction between individual Christians in parishes and missions and between groups of Christians. It is so among us in this diocese to some considerable extent. So I propose, therefore, that one of our aims for the coming year shall be to get the whole church and every part of it united in loving brotherliness. Let us begin now at this Service of Holy Communion and continue at every Holy Communion during the year, by prayer and word and act so that we may promote peace and reconciliation between ourselves and others, among all of our brethren. And remember please, how St. Paul puts it "As much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men." And, my brethren think of these words of our Saviour "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another," and of these words of His holy apostle, "And above all these things put on charity."

We are all about to participate in Eucharistic Worship and Holy Communion. In it both individually and as a Body, as a part of and representing the Church of God in this diocese, we offer ourselves, a "reasonable, holy and living sacrifice" to our God and Saviour. It is in the Spirit and power of this Service and of Him who meets us here that I hope we shall face the duties and meet the responsibilities for which we have met. They are in the main homely duties. They involve to some extent a monotonous routine, some repetition and not much on the surface that is inspiring or suggestive of romance. And yet I feel and I hope you all feel that the end which we have in view consecrates the commonplace methods. For the final end of our labor, its object and its purpose is certainly full of inspiration, full of the romance of a great quest. For life to the men who believe and see things beyond the veil of the form and beyond the present, is always a noble and holy quest. It is the quest of the Holy Grail, the cup that caught and holds the life blood of God. For in the life-blood of God is the meaning and the power and the life of the world. It is the life of the Kingdom of God, which is seeking to unfold and manifest itself in the world of men. For that meaning and power and that life we are searching, not because it is afar off, for it is not afar off, it is near; even closer than breathing, nearer than hands and feet. But alas! We are blind and cannot see, we are hard of heart and cannot perceive. The quest is for the light within, that we may see and perceive and once seeing and perceiving, we may bring light and life to others.

Brethren, let us like children make believe. Let us ask for a spiritualized imagination. Let us see in the commonplace duties of our council the golden deeds of a wonderful dream. We are trying to build a temple to our God, a temple of beauty and splendor in human hearts, in human life. These commonplace details of duty which appear in themselves to be so uninteresting and dreary may be like the brick of common clay which must furnish the solid core of the temple walls, which when built will be faced with polished marble and adorned with rich mosaic, and with the delicate tracery of sculptured poetry. These homely duties exhibiting the homely virtues of honesty and fidelity in little things are the necessary condition for the coming of that Kingdom of human life in which shall appear all brotherly justice and kindness, all the virtues and graces of the Saints in the Holy City of our God. He that is faithful in that which is least, will be faithful also in much.

Let us, therefore, brethren, give to these duties our careful and loyal attention. In so doing we shall be doing something and gaining something of great value for it will help in the building of the Kingdom. Let us keep our eye on the big thing that we are aiming after and not merely on the little things that we are doing now. Let us keep our eye on the vision and not merely on each weary step which we must take to attain the reality of the vision.

REPORT OF THE CORPORATION.

The Board of Officers beg leave to present the following report.

On May 14, 1914, the Board organized by the election of Rev. G. S. Whitney, Acting President; Rev. D. W. Winn, President protem; E. S. Elliott, Secretary and Treasurer.

Bond of the Treasurer was fixed at $5,000.00.

On Nov. 12, 1914, the Board authorized the sale of lots 9 and 10 on St. Simon's Island held in trust for the members of the Church on St. Simon's Island.

The Board authorized a loan of $1,000.00 to the Bishop as Trustee of Grace Church, Waycross, Georgia, on Rectory, subject to prior loan of $2,500.00 and lot on Tebeau Street, Waycross.

The Committee on the beneficiaries of Widows and Orphans Fund rendered its report.

The report of the Committee on the Corporation of the last Convention recommended that the Board should next year present a full statement of the investments held by the Corporation. That recommendation was not adopted by the Convention, the Board nevertheless presents such detailed statement prepared by its Treasurer in accordance with its recommendation.

The Board, however, calls attention to the fact that this information is in the books of the Treasurer in a readily accessible form where it may be inspected at any time by any member of the Convention.

E. S. ELLIOTT,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE CLERICAL TRUSTEE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH.

As your Clerical Trustee of the University of the South, I attended the meeting of the Board of Trustees at Sewanee last June.

Having been detained by parochial duties, I arrived a day late, but I was present at all the other sessions.

It is my pleasure to report that the Institution now has a brighter outlook. The number of students has increased and under the wise leadership of the Vice-Chancellor, its financial affairs are in a better condition.

As the treasurer of the funds appropriated by the Diocese under what is known as the Nelson Plan, I enclose my financial statement of amounts received with vouchers attached.

During the year I have written many letters both to clergymen and to laymen in regard to the apportionments for Sewanee. I find that there is an increasing interest and a real desire to cooperate with the trustee. The clergy and laity are beginning to feel their responsibility to this Church institution. And it is the opinion of your trustee that, had it not been for the heavy burdens and the heavier times laid upon the parishes and missions, the apportionments would have been entirely paid.

Your trustee desires to record his appreciation of the prompt and courteous response to his efforts.

Respectfully submitted,

S. B. McGLOHON,

Trustee of the University of the South.

Savannah, Ga., May 1, 1915.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH.

Your Committee examined and audited the Report of the Clerical Trustee of the University of the South, and found the same to be correct and supported by vouchers; that there is an unpaid apportionment of $894.50, and your Committee urges upon the Parishes and Missions the payment of this apportionment, as the apportionment is an annual one, and the apportionment should be made for this year; and it is desirable that the fund do not decrease.

Your Committee urges that the Parishes and Missions which are delinquent will make an extra effort to pay something on last year's apportionment, so as to increase further interest in the effort to raise the entire amount.

We recommend the adoption of the following Resolution:

Resolved, That the sum of $300 assessed upon the Diocese for the support of the Theological Department of the said University and the sum of $1,200 asked for by the University authorities as a fund to meet the annual deficits of the Institution be again united and that $1,500 be apportioned by the person who shall be named as Treasurer of the University for this Diocese, among the Parishes and Missions thereof, using the same basis for the assessments for the Bishop's salary at such a sliding scale of percentages as shall yield the required sum. (Adopted.)

REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF DIOCESAN BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Savannah, Georgia, May 15, 1915

Rt. Rev. Frederick F. Reese, D. D.,

Bishop of Georgia,

Savannah, Georgia.

My Dear Bishop:—

I beg to hand you herewith my Annual Report for the year ending April 30, 1915.

While my trial balance attached hereto, shows that several parishes and missions were in arrears on April 30th, all but four (4) parishes and seven (7) missions have paid in full since that date, and of the parishes there are three (3) which have not paid anything at all on account of their apportionment. Taking it all in all, however, considering the hard times through which the country has passed and is still passing, I consider the results obtained remarkably good and the showing a really fine one.

It seems to me that the spirit of missions has entered more largely into the lives of our church people and apportionments are assumed with better grace and paid more willingly and graciously than ever before. It has been a great help to your Treasurer that most of the churches, both parishes and missions, have paid their apportionments at regular intervals, enabling me to pay all salaries promptly without having to make loans for that purpose, thereby saving quite an item in the matter of interest.

The cash balance on hand, after paying every indebtedness in full in nine hundred and fifty one dollars and eighteen cents, ($951.18) as against a balance at the beginning of the year of seven hundred and eighty-six dollars and eleven cents, ($786.11) which shows that we have spent within one hundred and sixty-five dollars and seven cents ($165.07) of the amount collected.

Our total collections out of a total apportionment of thirty-three hundred and eighty-eight dollars and fifty cents ($3,388.50) were twenty-nine hundred and seventy-nine dollars and ninety-six cents, ($2,970.96) or eighty-eight (88%) per cent, as against eighty-five (85%) per cent for last year.

Our ability to pull through the year with a balance on hand is again attributable to several vacancies, which when filled will require the full amount of apportionments to meet.

The statement attached shows in detail receipts and disbursements and comparative figures with last years work.

I have had my books audited by Messrs. Charles Neville & Co., Certified Accountants, and attach certificate from them hereto.

Respectfully submitted,

A. B. MOORE,

Treasurer Board of Missions.

REPORT OF THE ARCHDEACON OF ALBANY.

On May 14, 1914, at a business meeting held in St. Paul's Church, Albany, the Rev. James B. Lawrence, upon nomination of the Bishop, was elected Archdeacon. The Rev. Gerald A. Cornell was elected Secretary and Treasurer.

The Rev. John Moore Walker, Jr., having officiated in Christ Church, Cordele, from time to time, became the Vicar in October, 1914, and thus every point within the Archdeaconry of Albany was manned. On May 1, 1915, the Rev. Gerald A. Cornell resigned the rectorship of St. Paul's Church, Albany, which leaves that, the largest Church in the Archdeaconry, vacant. Mr. Cornell, generous, lovable and sincerely beloved, carries with him the good wishes of all for success in his new field of labor. In the meantime steps are being taken to supply St. Paul's Church with Services and it is hoped that a permanent Rector may be obtained as soon as possible.

The Autumn meeting of the Archdeaconry of Albany took place in the Church of the Epiphany, Cuthbert, on October 7th, 8th and 9th. At the opening service, Rev. A. M. Rich spoke on "Missionary Work and our Obligation to do it." At the celebration of the Holy Communion on the morning of October 8th, the Rev. William H. Higgins preached a sermon, the subject of which was "The Invitation." In the afternoon the Rev. William B. Sams, of Bainbridge, read an illuminating essay upon the subject "New Testament Witness to Christ." At the evening service and at the morning service of the following day, Rev. James B. Lawrence spoke on "Some Impressions of the Church in New York City."

The meeting was closed by a splendid sermon by the Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese.

Business sessions of the Archdeaconry were held during the meeting at which the missionary work within our bounds was thoroughly discussed.

The Spring meeting was held in Calvary Church, Americus, on January 4th, 5th and 6th. These services were preparatory for a mission conducted by the Rev. C. B. Wilmer, D. D., Rector of St. Luke's Church, Atlanta. At the first service Mr. Higgins spoke on the text "Stir up thy Strength, and Come and Save Us," followed by the Rev. G. A. Cornell on "Thought Values." An hour was delightfully spent in Bible study. A Greek Testament was put in the hands of each Clergyman and in order that the hardship might be placed equally upon each member present, one of the men opened the Greek Testament at hazard and thus selected the reading which was to brush up our Greek.

A resolution was passed that a selection be made before hand for the next meeting in order to give time for preparation.

Another feature of this meeting which proved interesting and valuable was that a series of cottage prayer meetings was held. The Clergy went two by two and held these meetings in three different parts of the town. Although the weather was bad, they were all well attended and proved to be very helpful.

The Rev. Mr. Sams, and the Rev. John Moore Walker, of Cordele, made stirring addresses on the "Christian Ministry." The meeting was closed by a celebration of the Holy Communion on the morning of the Feast of the Epiphany when the Rev. Mr. Rich preached upon the text, "Jesus, the New Creator or Renewer." Thus the way was paved for the mission conducted by the Rev. C. B. Wilmer, whose keen intellectual perception and whose spiritual insight went straight to the hearts of the hearers.

Too much attention cannot be paid to our scattered Communicants. Lenten cards were sent to them so far as their addresses are known. Every effort should be made to increase this list of scattered Communicants, in order that no member of the Church within the Archdeaconry may be untouched by our efforts.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES B. LAWRENCE,

Archdeacon of Albany.

REPORT OF THE ARCHDEACON OF AUGUSTA.

The Archdeacon of Augusta has nothing to report but what is of a routine character.

The Rev. G. Croft Williams resigned as Vicar of Christ Church, Augusta, July 1, 1914. The Church was vacant until November 1, 1914, when the Rev. P. Trapier Prentiss took charge of the work. During the vacancy, services were held every Sunday night by the Archdeacon assisted by Mr. Albert Hutt, a faithful Lay Reader.

The Rev. Chas. P. Holbrook resigned as Rector of the Church of the Atonement, Augusta, Sept. 15, 1914, and the Church is still without a Rector. The Rev. F. W. B. Dorset has, however, accepted a call to his church, and expects to take up the work June 1st. The Missions at Thomson and Harlem which are cared for by the Rector of the Church of the Atonement, Augusta, have suffered in consequence of the long vacancy in that church.

The Missions at Hawkinsville, Dublin and Sandersville are being faithfully and efficiently cared for by the Rev. H. W. Robinson. Very handsome and comfortable new pews have been purchased by the Guild and installed in St. Luke's Church, Hawkinsville. The altar in Christ Church, Dublin, has been beautified by new hangings presented by the Guild.

The Boys' Home, of Christ Church, Augusta, is in a splendid condition. The Board of Managers has secured an assistant for the Matron who is Deaconess Boorman. A fund is being accumulated to build an addition to the Home, and it is hoped that the work may be enlarged in the near future.

WM. JOHNSON,
Archdeacon.

REPORT OF THE ARCHDEACON OF BRUNSWICK.

There is almost nothing to report of convocational work from the Brunswick district, for the past year. Efforts were made to hold special meetings, as in the past, but it has been found difficult to suit the convenience of the Church people in the small towns of the Archdeaconry.

Apart from this phase of the work, the Bishop has the mission stations so well in hand, with the various places filled, there is little left for the Archdeacon, as such to do:

However, he has not been idle, since he has, as during five years past, given two Sundays of each month to the Camden County Missions, as Acting Vicar.

Camden County is a large and charming field of effort, the Archdeacon's time, there being more in the nature of refreshment than of labor.

Besides the three Church services on the second Sunday at the town of St. Mary's, and a service with the Sunday School, the Vicar has a mixed class for Bible study. This is in line at the ordinary class for confirmation, undertaken ordinarily a short while before the Bishop's visits. Such confirmation class instruction has not been a success, while the monthly Bible instruction is already doing good.

The purpose is to teach communicants as well as catechumens those things a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health; showing Church doctrine through Bible truth.

The mode of procedure is to send to each person the special chapters to be read during the month.

The music at Christ Church, St. Mary's, is unusually good. The choir is composed mostly of friends from other congregations, who sing for sheer joy of singing, and think nothing more beautiful than the music at the Church.

The Church at St. Mary's, which was for so many years taken with a smile so to speak, is now welcomed as an institution. Her members do a commendable share of the work of the Civic League, and make themselves felt in many ways.

The five stations on the Satilla River are visited every month, the attendance at each place being a good proportion of the church going people of the vicinity.

The Auxiliaries of the Archdeaconry have kept up their established record of activities and with the stations all filled, the promise for the coming year is fair.

Respectfully submitted,

D. WATSON WINN.

REPORT OF THE ARCHDEACON OF SAVANNAH.

Savannah, Ga., May 20, 1915.

As the Archdeacon of Savannah, I took charge Nov. 1, 1914, of the Mission at Fennel's Station, Thunderbolt. This Mission was served by the Rev. Francis Alan Brown, but had not been definitely placed under the Church's care.

In November and December, with the assistance of the Communicants, the Sunday School was organized and graded and the Mission given the name St. Matthew's. Mr. Wm. Royal Sanderson, a communicant and Lay Reader of St. Paul's Church, holds weekly services and the Rev. Frederick North-Tummon is Priest in charge.

I have baptized three children and visited the communicants of St. Matthew's Mission. The record of these baptisms is in the Parish Register and included in the Parochial Report of St. Paul's Parish.

Respectfully submitted,

S. B. McGLOHON,

Archdeacon of Savannah.

REPORT OF THE CHANCELLOR.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Georgia, the Chancellor respectfully reports, as follows:

That in September, 1914, upon request of the Bishop, I advised him as to the construction to be given the deed of Mrs. Laura P. Moynelo to the Rt. Rev. John W. Beckwith, Bishop of Georgia, conveying an acre of land in the Valambrosa Plantation, for cemetery purposes. This matter is not of public interest.

I also advised the Bishop as to several cases arising under Canon Forty, in some of which the law had not been complied with, and in some it had. None of these cases are interesting, except possibly the following:

Case Under Canon Forty.

Not Innocent Party.

A, a man, married B, a woman. They lived together for several years, and had a family—when B, the wife, becoming dissatisfied, left her husband, A, in Washington City, came to Georgia, and obtained a divorce on the ground of desertion. In this case, A, the husband, appeared and was represented by counsel. Subsequently, B, the woman, married C, and some time later C, the second husband, obtained a divorce from her in Washington City, on the Canonical ground of adultery.

A, the original husband, now wishes to marry again, and desires his marriage performed by a minister of the Church. The question submitted is whether or not, in view of the subsequent divorce proceeding and decree rendered against his former wife on the Canonical ground of adultery, can he, A, be considered the innocent party under the Canon, so as to justify a minister of this Church performing the ceremony?

In my opinion, the first husband, A, cannot be considered "the innocent party in a divorce for adultery," because he was not a party to that case—was not even the woman's husband at that time—but that the innocent party to this second divorce is C, the second husband, and that this second decree would not, under the Canon, justify a re-marriage of A, by a Priest of the Church.

W. K. MILLER,
Chancellor.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMITTEE.

Savannah, Ga., May 20, 1915.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the reports of W. K. Miller, Treasurer of the Diocese, A. B. Moore, Treasurer of the Board of Missions, begs to report that they recommend that the report of the Treasurer of the Diocese be audited by a regular accountant and then returned to the Finance Committee. It is only due to the Treasurer that this should be done.

Your Committee urgently recommend that the assessments for Bishop's Salary and Convention Expenses be remitted more promptly to the Treasurer.

Your Committee have duly considered the letter from St. Mark's Church, Brunswick, Ga., but cannot recommend any reduction in assessments, as it would be a bad precedent to establish.

Your Committee recommend that the Assessment for Bishop's Stipend remain as at present, i. e., that it be based upon the current expense of each parish and mission for salary of clergy, organist, choir and sexton and light and fuel. And that churches whose expenses are over $2,000 be assessed 10 per cent; between $1,000 and $2,000 9 per cent; and less than $1,000 6 per cent.

Annexed hereto is a table showing the assessments to be paid, on this recommendation by the parishes and missions, to cover the Bishop's Stipend, which we recommend be adopted, as the assessment against the parishes and missions for the current year.

We recommend that the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the Bishop's Salary of $4,000 and should the Treasurer find it necessary to draw upon the income of the permanent fund that he be authorized to do so, to the extent of $1,000 and that the sum of $350 be appropriated to the payment of a stenographer for the Bishop.

Your Committee recommend that the Treasurer pay to the sexton of Christ Church, Savannah, Ga., the sum of $10.00 for his courteous services to the members of the Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

T. P. RAVENEL

Chairman Finance Committee.

(Subsequent to the presentation of the above Report the Canon on Assessment for Convention Fund was amended as recorded on -----, and the matter of such assessment [to be known hereafter as "Diocesan Expenses" was referred to a special Committee, the Treasurer of the Diocese and Mr. B. B. Russell], to report a table in accordance with the new Canon.

The table annexed includes the Report of this special committee. The recommendation of the Finance Committee is therefore eliminated from the above.—Sec'y.)

REPORT OF BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Board of Missions to which is entrusted, with the Bishop, the general supervision of the Missionary work of the Diocese here records, in this its annual report to the ninety-third Convention of the Diocese of Georgia, its hearty thanks to Almighty God for His many blessings upon the work in this portion of His Vineyard.

In spite of the depressing effects of the lamentable European war upon all enterprise, the Church has been evidently prosperous. The spiritual life of her children has revived, their zeal renewed, and their sacrifices become generous and more abundant. In all the borders of the mission work laymen and devoted priests have been indefatigable in cheerful and inspired service. For these benefits the Board expresses its devout thanks to the Divine Head of the Church. Meetings.

The Board met in Albany, May 14th, to organize. In order to expedite its business, an Executive Committee consisting of the members residing in Savannah was appointed.

Ways and means were also considered and plans formulated to carry on the work and to make it both efficient and economical.

Nov. 12th, the Board met again for the transaction of business. The Rev. S. B. McGlohon was elected Secretary, and changes made for services at some missions.

During the year the Executive Committee met June 4th, Oct. 21st, and April 13th.

The Mission Stations have not been disturbed this year to any appreciable extent by disastrous changes among the Missionaries.

They have their work well organized and receive the cordial support of their flocks. The Board is glad to express its appreciation of the loyalty and fidelity of these faithful priests and laymen.

The Rev. John Moore Walker, who did effective work in the Missions near Savannah has been transferred to Cordele and Vienna where he continues to render acceptable service.

The Rev. G. C. Williams, the faithful and devoted Vicar of Christ Church, Augusta, resigned to accept work in South Carolina. The Rev. P. T. Prentiss succeeded Mr. Williams and was placed in charge Nov. 1st.

The Rev. Frederick North-Tummon who formerly did excellent service in Fitzgerald, returned to the Diocese and since November 1st has had charge of Jesup and associated Missions in the vicinity of Savannah. Under his leadership, the church in these places has become active and prosperous. Particularly is this true of the congregation in Jesup. There the flock is united and enthusiastic and has become a center of strength and a source of encouragement.

The work at Bainbridge is in excellent condition. The Mission at Cuthbert has become a contributor to the support of its Missionary.

The Rev. Jas. B. Lawrence is raising funds to build a church at Blakeley. The Board trusts that he will receive substantial aid from every communicant in the Diocese.

The communicants at Fennel's Station (Thunderbolt) now have services regularly. A Sunday School has been organized and graded.

The Board regrets to record that the church building at McRae was seriously damaged by a storm.

The Mission at Belfast has been in temporary charge of the Rev. Robt. J. McBryde, D. D., who in spite of ill health and the infirmities of age has ministered to the flock at this point. To him the Board tenders its thanks and appreciation.

Further details of Missionary activities will be given in the report of the Archdeacons.

By the above arrangements and by supplying Tifton from Cordele, and Douglas from Fitzgerald, the Board has managed to maintain the work in all the mission stations.

The Rev. Francis Alan Brown, for some years the faithful secretary of this Board, having accepted the Rectorship of St. Mary's Parish, New York, resigned Oct. 21st. Mr. Brown was active and helpful in all Diocesan affairs and his removal is a great loss to this Board as well as to the Diocese.

The attention of the Convention is called to the financial report of the Board's treasurer. It is encouraging and worthy of remark that the apportionments for Diocesan Missions have been more willingly accepted and paid than in former years. Except in a few places where unavoidable and insurmountable financial depletion prevented, the assessments for Diocesan Missions have been promptly met.

The Board trusts that this indicates on the part of the Diocese, not only willingness to support the present work but a determination to enlarge its sphere of activities and to carry the church into hitherto unoccupied places.

Although the Diocese has until Sept. 1st to liquidate the amount apportioned it by the General Board of Missions, and it may have given more at this time than at the same period last year, your Board now calls the attention of every parish and mission to the urgent needs of the church for her larger field of labor.

This Diocese depends upon and receives from the General Board of Missions generous support for no small part of its important and necessary work. Without this aid the parishes and missions in Georgia would be burdened with additional expense in excess of the amount apportioned to them by the Church for the support of General Missions. Certainly, therefore, if the spirit of sacrifice has not already prompted, self consideration would dictate the utmost endeavor to meet the requirements of the greater work.

With this in view, your Board commends unreservedly the cause and the adoption of the plans suggested by the General Board of Missions for securing the payment of the apportionments.

It is in this spirit that the resolution relative to the subject is appended to this report.

For the Church's work among the negroes, the Board refers the Convention to the parochial reports made at the Council of Colored Churchmen of the Diocese.

Your Board recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That, the sum of $3,300 be apportioned for Diocesan Missions for the coming year, the apportionments upon the parishes and missions to be made by the Board of Missions, the same to be calculated on the basis of the current expenses of each parish and mission, as reported for the assessments for the Bishop's salary, and on such a sliding scale of percentages as shall yield the required amount.

Resolved, That, the clergy of the Diocese be requested to appoint as soon as practicable, in their respective parishes and missions, a Men's Missionary Committee in accordance with the suggestions of the General Board of Missions.

Respectfully,

S. B. McGLOHON,

Secretary, Board of Missions, of the Diocese of Georgia.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS.

There have been referred to the Committee on Missions, the report of the Treasurer and Secretary of the Board of Missions and a portion of the Bishop's address, relating to Missions. These reports have been examined and we are glad to report that there is a general spirit of progressiveness along this line and find that all of the Parishes but four and 7 of the Missions have paid in full their apportionment for Diocesan Missions and that there has been a general increase for General Missions and as this ground has been fully covered both by the Treasurer of the Board of Missions and the Secretary of the Board of Missions, we feel that it is unnecessary to enter into any detailed account and we simply urge that the clergy and lay delegates on returning home try to encourage the people of their respective Parishes and Missions to continue this good work until we meet our apportionments in full, both for Diocesan and General Missions.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PENSION FUND.

The Committee on the Church Pension Fund beg leave to render the following report:

The Church Pension Fund is the name of a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of New York and subject to regulation by the insurance department of the State of New York. This incorporation was effected and its work being carried on by virtue of legislation adopted by the General Convention of 1913 (See Journal of the General Convention 1913; pages 277, 290 and 319..)

By the system adopted, upon payment of an assessment of substantially 7 and one half per cent of the annual salary of a clergyman, he is entitled to receive a pension varying from $600.00 to $2,000.00 per annum, according to certain rules laid down by the corporation.

Your committee is of the opinion that it is very wise and proper that this Diocese should enter into this system.

At the same time, it is necessary that some arrangement be made by which the income now derived from the invested funds of this Diocese for Infirm and Disabled Clergy and for Widows and Orphans of deceased Clergy may be co-ordinated with the Church Pension Fund, and so while the Committee recommends that the Church Pension Fund system be adopted, it suggests that the matter of the arrangement to be made with the Church Pension Fund in reference to the allotment to it of the income (not the capital) of these two Diocesan funds be left to the Board of Officers, two of your committee being members of that body and it being entitled at any time to have the advice of the Chancellor, who is the third member of the Committee, therefore your Committee recommends the adoption of the appended resolutions. (For Resolutions see Minutes, p. 28).

All of which is respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RACIAL EPISCOPATE.

Savannah, Ga., May 19, 1915

The Committee on Racial Episcopate beg to report as follows:

Your Committee endeavored to have a meeting of all of its members, but was unable to do so. There was, however, held in Savannah a meeting at which some of them were present and at a later date the Bishop met the members of the Committee who live in Augusta.

By these meetings it was agreed to issue a letter to the Clergy and Vestries of the Diocese stating the situation as it now exists and as it is proposed and asking an expression of judgment from the Vestries and Clergy in the premises. A copy of the letter issued is herewith appended to this report. The aim of the questions was to ascertain whether the Diocese as represented by its clergy and congregations preferred that the relation between the colored churches and the white should remain as they are.

Whether there should be organized a Negro Missionary District with a negro Bishop in direct relation to the General Convention or whether in the event that additional Episcopal supervision was found to be necessary for the negro congregations, that a negro Suffragan Bishop should be elected in this Diocese.

Copies of this letter were sent to the Clergy and Vestries of the white congregations. It is intended that later a similar series of interrogatories shall be addressed to the colored clergy and congregations. In the meantime, however, the Council of Colored Churchmen in the Diocese has taken the matter up and appointed a Committee to do practically the same thing.

As a result of our inquiries, the Committee has had replies from eleven vestries and congregations and from eleven of the clergy.

Of these eleven congregations, five positively and definitely voted for the present situation without change and eight voted in favor of a Suffragan Bishop in preference to a Missionary District in the event that any colored Bishop should be found necessary.

Of the clergy, eleven replied, of whom seven expressed a positive preference for the present arrangement and seven expressed a preference for the Suffragan Bishop over the Racial District.

It will be seen that there is among those who replied, a unanimous sentiment opposed to the Missionary District. However, only eleven clergy and eleven congregations have made any reply and, therefore, the Committee does not feel justified in presenting a final report and will ask to be continued by them in order that they may pursue the inquiry among the white people and also among the colored clergy and congregations.

But, in view of the fact that the Joint Commission of the General Convention on the same subject has already had one meeting and expects to have another one on June 16th, and has submitted a communication to us upon the subject, the Committee submits whether it would not be advisable for this Convention to express some judgment on this matter to be laid before this Commission at the proposed meeting and also before the Synod of the Province of Sewanee which meets in the fall.

We, therefore, submit the following Resolutions:

1st. Resolved, That the Committee be continued to report at the next Convention.

2nd. Resolved, That so far as the mind of the Church in the Diocese of Georgia has been ascertained by the investigations of this Committee, this Convention is justified in expressing the opinion that the Diocese will be unalterably opposed to a Missionary District with a negro Bishop in the Southern Dioceses and so far as it can express the attitude of the Diocese of Georgia, that it will be unwilling to cede jurisdiction, of the colored congregations within its limits, to the General Convention, for this purpose. (Adopted.)

Jan. 7, 1915.

Committee on Racial Episcopate,

For a long time there has been an agitation in the General Convention and in the Church at large with a view of changing the relation of the colored clergy and congregations to the Dioceses in which they live and to the General Church.

1.—Heretofore all of those colored congregations have been parts of the organized dioceses or missionary districts within which they are located, as all other clergy and congregations are, and the work among the colored people has been done under the direction and control of the Diocesan Bishops and Diocesan authorities. There has been one Diocese and one Bishop for both races in each geographical division of the Church.

2.—It is now proposed by many persons—white and colored—including some Southern Bishops, that whenever two or more dioceses shall consent, the negro clergy and congregations within their limits shall be organized into a Missionary District, similar to all other Missionary Districts, except that it shall not consist of definite territory but shall be composed of scattered congregations located in dioceses and other missionary districts. It is then contemplated that the General Convention shall elect for this district a negro as Bishop.

This Bishop shall possess an independent jurisdiction and have a seat and a vote in the House of Bishops. The Negro Missionary District shall have the same clerical and lay representation in the House of Deputies and possess all privileges of self-government as are enjoyed by other missionary districts. When this is accomplished, the white Bishops within whose dioceses these colored clergy live and these colored congregations exist shall have no control or jurisdiction over them, whatsoever. They will be as independent of him and his diocese, as if they lived in another continent.

3.—Under the Constitution of the General Convention any diocese may now elect a Suffragan Bishop to be Assistant to its Diocesan. These Bishops are entitled to a seat but not a vote in the House of Bishops. Their relations to their own dioceses are determined by diocesan law, provided that law does not conflict with the law of the General Church. Several dioceses now possess such Suffragan Bishops. It is proposed therefore, that if it be deemed desirable or necessary to provide special Episcopal oversight for negro clergy and congregations in any diocese that that diocese elect a negro as a Suffragan Bishop whose duty and responsibility shall be limited to his own race and shall be under the jurisdiction and direction of the Diocesan Bishop, as other Suffragan Bishops are. If such a Negro Suffragan should be elected in any diocese, it would be competent for a neighboring diocese or dioceses to authorize their Bishops to license him for Episcopal duty among the negroes within its limits.

This matter has been agitated for a long time and it is desirable that some action should be taken at an early date to settle it. In 1913 the General Convention appointed for the third time a Joint Commission to report in 1916. As the matter so intimately concerns the Southern Dioceses it would seem to be desirable that they should express their judgment on it in some official way.

For this purpose, our Convention in May last appointed a Committee to consider and report. To enable it to do so intelligently, the Committee desires to ascertain the mind of the Clergy and laity in the Diocese, both white and colored.

You are asked, therefore, to reply to the following questions as soon as may be convenient and to give as concisely as possibly the reasons which lead to your conclusion.

But before doing so, you must necessarily, as Southern men, take into consideration our governmental and economical relations with the negro. Is it best to leave him to himself? What has been his history when such is the case? Does he progress or lapse? The policy of the Church heretofore has been to foster and take care of him, keep in touch with him, and promote his religious education and civilization the best way possible. If a racial Episcopate is decided upon, all this will be changed and the guiding hand of the Church through the white race removed. On the other hand, if negro Suffragan Bishops be provided in such Dioceses as may need such assistance, the negro work will still have the general oversight of the White Diocesan Bishop, and the two races remain in touch with each other.

1.—Which plan of the three, numbered 1, 2 and 3, will, in your judgment, best advance the Church's work among the negroes in this Diocese and at the same time preserve the unity of the Church?

2.—In the event that it be found in the future advisable or necessary to have Episcopal oversight of a negro Bishop for our colored people in this Diocese, do you think that the proposed missionary district with a negro Bishop exercising independent jurisdiction over colored people within, but not of the Diocese, or the Suffragan negro Bishop elected by the diocese and Assistant to the Diocesan Bishop would best promote the work among our colored Brethren and at the same time preserve the unity of the Church?

And you are also asked to secure from your Vestry and from other lay members of your congregation, individually or collectively, as far as may be possible, written and signed statements in answer to these two questions.

Faithfully yours,
COMMITTEE.

REPORT OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION.

The following brief report can hardly be considered as a report of the Commission as a whole, but rather of its chairman who has found impossible to assemble the members of the Commission for due consideration and conference. In fact, it is best to state frankly that as a Commission, we have found it practically impossible to carry out to any useful extent the purposes for which we were constituted.

The difficulties are entirely of a practical nature. Half the members live in Augusta, the others in Savannah and Brunswick. All are busy people and it has not been possible to arrange for a meeting in any sense representative. During our first year we had an efficient Secretary in Miss Helen Pendleton and in that year we held two meetings and made satisfactory progress in arousing interest among clergy and laity in the opportunities for the Church to take her share in the great work of social service. During the next year two conferences were held. Some work was planned and the Commission was represented by two of its members in conferences and services in connection with the General Convention in New York. During the past year, no meetings have been held and little has been done beyond keeping in touch with the General Social Service Commission of the Church.

We have had no money whatever, none for correspondence, your chairman has no stenographer, and being all but overwhelmed with his own parochial work, has been unable to confer by correspondence with the members or to communicate suggestions from the General Board to our own clergy and laity. Until these conditions can be met by finding at least one person who has time and ability to give to the work and until a small fund can be found from some source to meet the absolutely necessary expenses, we can expect to accomplish but little.

And yet the field is a great and fascinating one. Our General Board, composed of expert Social Workers has explored the field and has found many pressing problems which demand the earnest attention of the Church and to the solving of which our own Church has really a special contribution to make.

The whole South and our own Diocese is fairly teeming with social conditions that cry aloud for consideration and help from Christian men and women and in the relieving of which the Church is especially adapted to give efficient help. There are, for instance, hundreds of charitable and special institutions which are practically without Christian ministration of any sort and in which exist conditions which demand investigation and remedial measures which could be accomplished by the intelligent work of Her people. This is but one instance; there are many others. For little while social service work became a fad and was overdone and badly done in some respects and neglected in others. But the experimental stage has passed, methods have been improved and now the work steadily engages a vast body of our most faithful people. There is a great danger lest the happiness that many are finding in this work shall so absorb some that they make it a substitute for all work directly connected with or inspired by the Church. The Church, therefore, must endeavor so to connect itself with some of these lines of endeavor that the workers will feel that it is the Church that is sending them forth in Her name and with her power to grapple with evil and to establish the social righteousness of the Kingdom of our Lord and Master.

We believe that every Diocese should have its Social Service Commission and that it would be a mistake to fall out of line because of the difficulties we have met. As the Diocese grows older and stronger, we shall learn how to do this work. Some commissions have done great things—we can certainly accomplish something.

We, therefore, offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That, the Social Service Commission be continued, and so reconstituted that the members may be able to confer frequently. (Adopted.)

G. SHERWOOD WHITNEY, Chairman,
WM. JOHNSON,
W. K. MILLER.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee has found it very difficult to make an intelligent and comprehensive report owing to so many of the clergy not sending, as a standing resolution of the Convention orders, a copy of their parochial reports to the Committee some days before the meeting of the Convention.

Your Committee, after tabulating and comparing the parochial reports of this and last conventional year, finds the following results:

	1914	1915	In- crease	De- crease
Baptisms -----	348	287		61
Confirmations -----	323	291		32
Communicants -----	4,905	4,948	43
Marriages -----	102	38		14
Burials -----	176	182	6
Sunday School pupils and teachers-----	2,872	2,975	103
Parochial School pupils and teachers-----	505	592	87
Industrial School pupils and teachers-----	267	194		73

Your Committee finds a great discrepancy between the number of Confirmations and the Increase in the number of Communicants for which it is at loss to give an explanation. In the splendid report of the Secretary of the Board of Missions, such an admirable account is given of the work of the Church in the Missions, that your Committee feels that anything it might say about that part of Christ's work would only be a duplication of what has already been said.

As we examine the parochial reports on the financial side, we cannot help being impressed with this fact, that the offerings for Diocesan and General Missions, which are greater than last year, in spite of the financial depression, is an evidence of the earnestness and desire of our Church people to help with God's work.

On what might be called the spiritual side of the Parochial report, we do not find the evidence so favorable or encouraging. There is a decrease in the Baptisms and Confirmations this year. We do not presume to give any reason for this; but we do recommend an earnest, heart-searching by the Clergy, to find out whether or not full duty has been done by them. Of course, we know that the Priest cannot do it all; but he is the leader and the teacher in things Spiritual, yea, he is the shepherd to look out for, and to look up the straying sheep.

We would recommend that the part of the Bishop's address that deals with the idea of the Clergyman having a "plan," which, after all, is a Spiritual Vision for our people, be read and thought over seriously, not only by the Clergymen but by the laymen as well, and then with earnest prayer for the guidance of God's Holy Spirit, endeavor to follow and live up to the advice given us by our Bishop. We cannot but feel that if the advice and counsel given by our Bishop in his Convention address be prayerfully and faithfully followed, that another year will see, not a decrease, but a tremendous increase in every department of the Church's work in the Diocese of Georgia.

Your Committee would recommend that the resolution offered by the Rev. Mr. Whitney be passed by this House.

Your Committee begs leave to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That one thousand copies of the Bishop's address be printed and distributed among the various Parishes and Missions by the Committee on the State of the Church at the earliest opportunity, and that the Treasurer of the Diocese pay the bill out of the funds of the Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. JOHNSON, Chairman,
G. SHERWOOD WHITNEY,
P. T. PRENTISS,
MARION G. RIDGELY,
ALBERT S. HUTT.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

The Board has not held any meetings but informally.

Members of the Board and the Bishop met with Rev. Wm. E. Gardner, D. D., Secretary, G. B. R. E. Dr. Gardner visited several Parishes in the Diocese, held conferences with Sunday School teachers and delivered instructive addresses in behalf of this important subject, and in some instances has been the means of making many improvements in the Sunday Schools.

Again your Board urges upon the attention of the Parishes and Missions, the plans and suggestions of the General Board.

Your Board recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Convention accepts the Apportionment of $92.00 asked from the Diocese for the support of the G. B. R. E., for the year Dec. 1, 1914, to Nov. 30, 1915, and that this sum be raised by an assessment of one-third of one per cent upon the current expenses of each parish and mission.
(Adopted.)

Resolved, That the letter received from the President of the Atlanta Assembly of the B. S. A., be received as information.

(Adopted.)

(As amended.) Resolved, That the plan of the General Board for Sunday Schools be commended to the Rectors and Officers of the Sunday Schools of the Diocese with the suggestion that they use such plan and grade their respective Sunday Schools according to such plan as far as in their discretion they are for the best interests of their respective Schools.

Yours very sincerely,

JOHN H. BROWN,

Secretary, Executive Committee, Provincial Board of Religious Education, Province of Sewanee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE.

Albany, Ga., May 1, 1915.

The Rt. Rev. The Bishop of Georgia,

Your "Committee on Episcopal Residence" has met twice since the Convention of the Diocese of Georgia, assembled in Albany in the year 1914. Definite plans were made for the raising of funds to purchase a home for our Bishop. These plans were not carried out because of the depression in the business world.

Your Committee respectfully asks that it may be continued for another year. (Adopted.)

Respectfully submitted,

GERALD CORNELL, Chairman.

Resolved, That the Bishop appoint a Committee consisting of two clergymen and one layman on the Increase of the Ministry in the Diocese of Georgia, recommending that they use the Virginia or any other plan for securing Candidates.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNA D. DODGE.

Remarks: The Dodge Home is in better condition now than for sometime past. Much has been done in the way of improvement and repairs; Lavatory, Shower Baths and Toilets have been installed, with sewerage to the river; the farm has been enlarged; the tool room refilled with better implements.

The general health of the boys has been exceptionally good, and their work at home and school satisfactory. The merit system is in use, and the Bishop's yearly prize for General Excellence, begun in 1910, is a great incentive for a high standard.

Sister Mary has been loaned to us by the Bishop of Atlanta, and fills a long-felt need.

As the boys outgrow this Home, they are helped in other ways, as their choice, or circumstances, permit. Of the eight (8) who have left us this fiscal year, Ernest Carnes has been received into the family of a thrifty farmer in Glynn County; Andrew Cox returned to his home in Augusta to work for his mother; John Smith was taken by his uncle in Waverly, Ga., for higher education; Robert Embury had a place in the United States Navy; Guy Barksdale, Atlanta, and Freeman Finch, Macon, have been returned to their friends; Lloyd and John Kemp, who ran away, were not allowed to return, because their influence here was detrimental to the Home.

The boys attend the Public School, but to secure a longer term and a first class teacher it is necessary that the Home adds to the County Fund.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EPISCOPAL ORPHAN'S HOME.

To the Bishop of Georgia.

Savannah, Ga., April 15, 1915.

The first Directress begs to submit the 62nd Annual Report for the year ending March 31, 1915.

During the last year five children have left the Home, three having reached their majority, and two having been released to relatives, leaving thirty-three girls here at present. We have many times this winter had applicants waiting for vacancies, and will soon again have our full number, thirty-five.

We have done a good deal of repair work to the Home and have put in a much needed bath-room in the Infirmary. There has also been some work done to the house at Wilmington, to make it more convenient and to keep it in order. The children, as always, enjoyed the summer at Wilmington. This winter they have been as often as possible on Saturday afternoons to the Public Playgrounds.

For the first time in nearly twenty years, we have had a case of contagious illness, but owing to the quick work done by our house Mother and her assistant in isolating the sick child at once, the other children did not contract the disease.

We are most grateful for the interest shown this year in the Home. Many donations in money and in kind have been received, and a list of the donors will be found in our published report.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRINCIPAL OF ST. ATHANASIVS' SCHOOL, BRUNSWICK,

To the Rt. Rev. Frederick F. Reese, D. D., President of the Board of Trustees, Session 1914-15.

I have the honor to submit to your consideration the following annual report of St. Anthansius' School, covering the period from July 13, 1914, to April 10, 1915, and in my fourth year as principal:

	Boys	Girls	Total
Total Enrollment -----	108	162	270
Number belonging at the end of Term-----	75	110	185
Number left permanently -----	34	52	86
Average number belonging daily -----	79	124	203
Average number attending any part of month-----	84	134	218
Highest number attending any single day -----	80	125	205
Lowest number attending any single day -----	42	58	100
Average Daily Attendance -----	71	108	179
Per Cent of Attendance -----	88	87	87.5

The total enrollment is sixty less than that of last session. The number that left school is sixty-six less than that of last year. The average daily attendance is ten less and the per cent. is 1.3 less. These figures show that this year's attendance compares favorably with that of the preceding year.

The total receipts of last year are $502.22 more than those of the present session. The balance due, is $38.38 more this year than last. This means that, according to the enrollment of the two years, each student owes 14c more at the time of this report than at the time of my annual report of last session. This can be readily explained when we consider the present financial strain everywhere.

The work in the grades has had a steady growth, but it has not reached what might be called a standard. We have been trying to coach and encourage students who have been poorly graded in the past rather than lose them. We feel that the time is now at hand for us to be exacting, but we think that we shall do this at some risk though it is necessary for a good school standard. Our patrons as a whole seem satisfied with the results obtained in this department.

The work of the high school is satisfactory in every way. This department should be given every encouragement for the reason that it furnishes incentive to the students of the grades for earnest work, that high school students are best fitted for industrial training; that its daily program can be best adjusted to accommodate the work of other departments and because it gives an opportunity for advanced work to students who are unable to attend schools away from home.

In our efforts to teach, we do not lose sight of religious instruction. Twenty minutes each day are devoted to this training. We use a course of instruction prepared by the New York Sunday School Commission, and we feel that we are getting good results.

Our cooking and sewing departments are doing creditable work. We have heard complimentary expressions, with reference to these departments, from citizens who have come in contact with our students receiving this training.

The music department deserves commendation for the elevating tone it is giving the school. It is increasing the interest of our students in their work and giving the school prestige.

Respectfully yours,

WM. A. PERRY,
Principal.

Report of the Rev. C. C. Williams, D. D., Mobile, Ala.

Mobile, Ala., May 1, 1915.

My Dear Bishop Reese:—

I am very sorry that it is impossible for me to come to the Convention. I hope it will be a satisfactory session in every way. I am still residing for the most part of each year in Mobile. There are two Parishes here in charge of Deacons, which gives me the opportunity and privilege of giving them Celebrations of the Holy Communion once a month, as well as for special Holy Days. These Services with other occasional ministrations in Parish Churches have been all that I have been able to undertake this winter. In the summer I often have opportunities to officiate, so that I am able here and there to provide ministrations for people who otherwise would go without such Services of the Church.

With the very best regards for you both personally and officially, and all good wishes for the brethren, I am,

Faithfully yours in the Church,

C. C. WILLIAMS.

To The Rt. Rev. Frederick F. Reese, D. D.,
