

*"And I pray that you,
being rooted and established in love, may have power,
together with all the saints,
to grasp how wide and long and high and deep
is the love of Christ."
—Ephesians 3:17b-18*

Grounded in God is a spirituality retreat being offered by a group interested in furthering spirituality in the Diocese of Georgia. The goal of the retreat is twofold:

First and foremost, the brief overnight retreat will open up space to quiet the noise of day to day life to listen to God.

Secondly, there will be teaching on solid, time-tested spiritual practices which have nourished through the centuries.

In living into these two goals, the retreat will make space both for you to learn and for you to have time to meditate and to hear God in worship and in silence.

All who attend that have a set spiritual discipline should bring their Rule of Life in their hearts or in writing to the retreat. All will be challenged to revisit their daily, weekly and annual practices of the faith—the spiritual disciplines which keep us grounded in God.

Retreat Leadership

Retreat facilitators are The Rev. Frank Logue, Canon to the ordinary of the Diocese of Georgia and his wife, Victoria Logue, TSSF, an author and trained labyrinth facilitator.

Retreat leadership and break out session instruction will also be given by the members of the Society of Saint Aelred of Rievaulx, a neo-monastic community at the Episcopal Church of St. Paul the Apostle in Savannah, Georgia. More at www.saintaelred.org
